

PrivateRelay – Domain accounts

Domain accounts with PrivateRelay all benefit from the same features associated with our standard '@privaterelay.xxx' addresses with secure email, tasks, contacts and calendar. Account differences are based on the disk space available, and the technical support level offered.

Prices

Domain accounts are based on the ordering of 5 email account blocks. Discounts are offered based on the billing period as follows:

	Includes 5 email accounts
	BASIC	STANDARD	PRO
3 months	36 €	39 €	48 €
6 months	51 €	61 €	75 €
12 months	66 €	75 €	92 €

We offer additional discounts for clients with over 40 email addresses. If you would like to benefit from these reductions then please contact us at sales@team.privaterelay.com

Technical note

Once an order has been processed the accounts will be setup based on the configuration provided. We will then provide details of the DNS MX servers needed to redirect the domain name to our servers. Should you require the registration of a new domain name, then we would recommend the French registrar Gandi.
